Who we are

We are a friendly family run business based in Dorset who take pride in helping people claim back money they are due.

We have been in business since 2012 assisting people who have been mis-sold financial products. We pride ourselves on providing customers with the best support and advice while taking away the stress of dealing with the claim.

Mis-sold Pensions

People have transferred their hard-earned money into investments that often are unsuitable and sometimes worthless. This often leads to a huge loss in an individual's pension funds. This loss has a significant impact on individuals often meaning they have to work for many more years to make up the shortfall. People feel angry and frustrated that they were 'scammed' and don't know who to turn to...
